I was driving on a graveled road leaving a trail of dust behind me and singing at the top of my voice. I was rounding a very tall-for-Kansas kind of hill. It was one of those curves that seemed to go on forever. I wasn't paying much attention to the road or as it turned out, to my mom's flying signals either. That changed abruptly when suddenly my mom was flying low and straight at me. We were eye-to-eye!. I could see her laughing as we locked eyes. (Now I understand why my pony, Silver, didn't care for this)! Mom was very careful as she flew right over the hood and roof of the car. She dropped a flag from her automatic flagman mounted on the right wing. In retrospect, it was a marvel that I didn't crash! On the other hand, this was pretty par for my mom! (I came by this naturally, guys!) This proves it! The good news is that I got her message. I was approaching an otherwise unmarked turn that I needed to make and Mom just wanted to get my attention so I didn't miss it. Mission accomplished! Laundry necessary!

The day to day struggles were normal in her little world, that's if you call molestation, rape and abuse an everyday struggle. No one close to this beautiful girl could be trusted, nor the degree of loyalty to her pure innocence, she never experienced. The only way out was to accept maturity before her time through drugs, bad relationships, becoming a stripper, being homeless and being disconnected from her life and loved ones. She witnessed many traumatic experiences and at the end of each tunnel, more light shined in when God showed her the way and protected her from death. Not only will you experience the journey with this little girl you will also experience the journey of God taking over.
