Natural Consequences Good Intentions 2 Elliott Kay

Good Intentions 2: Natural Consequences So once upon a time in 2010, I wrote a little story that became Good Intentions. As I ' ve noted before on this blog, Good Intentions came up while I was writing Poor Man's Fight and got stumped on a minor bit of character development. I wanted to keep writing even though I was a bit stuck.

2. Good intentions motivate the rabbi and most congregants at our synagogue to support Black Lives Matter. For now, let us assume that everyone involved in BLM has good intentions (although obviously that is never completely true of any movement). But I cannot stop there. As I see it, the consequences of BLM thus far are bad, and they will be worse.

review 1: I missed these characters so much.Alex, Lorelei, and Rachel return in the sequel to Good Intentions. Elliot Kay spins a tale of alternative romance and supernatural hindrances. Alex must learn more about his past lives and learn to put his old demons to rest, otherwise he will not be able to appreciate his current one.
