Some Hope: A Trilogy - Edward St. Aubyn - Google Books

Some Hope' opens, ominously, at a house party held in the shadow of the Marquis de Sade's ruined ancestral home at Lacoste. The trilogy focuses on young Patrick Melrose and describes the destructive impact of a sadistic (small 's') father, spectacular substance abuse, and inherited wealth. By turns funny, shocking and sad, but always beautifully written, the novels (initially published between 1991 and 1994) have just been reissued by Picador as a single chunky paperback.
