If you're a beginner, this study guide may seem a bit short (it only has 154 pages), and you would be right. When it comes to explaining concepts and procedures, this MBLEx Study Guide is a bit short on the information it offers. Still, it's a fantastic complementary resource and works well for people who already have a contact with this niche.

The study guide is pretty good. Better than many who have only given it one star. At least it has a section on Situation Judgment. Although it is obvious that the Situational Judgment section was taken from some type of military study guide, it gives you helpful hints on how to address this section.
