The Unbound (The Archived #2)Victoria Schwab. The Unbound (The Archived #2) ONE. MY BODY BEGS for sleep. I sit on the roof of the Coronado, and it pleads with me, begs me to climb down from my perch on the gargoyle's broken shoulder, to creep back inside and down the stairs and through the still-dark apartment into my bed—to sleep. But I

The Unbound (The Archived #2)(58) Victoria Schwab "Do you?" she says, rounding her chair. "Do you truly know what you're suggesting? Voids are tears in the world. Every time one is created, it puts the Outer and the Archive at risk. As such, the intentional creation of one is punishable by alteration. And you think that a member of Crew ...
