Moses was a Hebrew (Jewish) child who was adopted by Pharaoh's daughter and raised as an Egyptian. He is, nevertheless, faithful to his roots. In the long run, he delivers his people, the Jews, from enslavement in Egypt. In the book of Exodus, he is left in a basket in a clump of reeds (bulrushes), but he is never abandoned.

Why Was Baby Moses Left in a Basket in the Bulrushes?

FOR WHAT reason does Jesus bring Moses and Elijah onto the scene [of the transfiguration]? One might offer a number of reasons. First this: that since " some " of the crowd " said he was Elijah, others Jeremiah or one of the ancient prophets " (Mt. 16:14), He brought the leading prophets there, so that even from them one might see the difference between servants and the master, and how ...
